Property management taken to a higher level with the arrival of Jimmy Gysels

Jimmy Gysels is starting today as Chief Property Manager at Montea. In this position, he will optimize property management at Montea further, so that we can provide even better service for current and future clients. Particular emphasis will be placed on making the portfolio more sustainable, as well as on innovation and customer-oriented communication.

Jimmy has gained more than twenty years of experience as Head of Property Management and team manager at Cofinimmo. As an industrial engineer, he combines the necessary technical baggage with thorough experience as a service-minded property manager and people manager.
